Dear Boris Kievsky,

I am excited to submit my application for the position of WordPress Web Developer at dotOrgStrategy. With over 8 years of professional experience in web development and a deep understanding of WordPress, I am confident in my ability to contribute to your team and help advance the mission of your organization.

I have successfully completed numerous WordPress projects over the years and in fact this is the CMS that I oversee in my current position which encompasses an entire University website. I have extensive expertise in custom theme development, plugin customization, and working with popular page builders such as Divi and Elementor. Additionally, I am proficient in utilizing custom post types and custom fields frameworks like Pods and Toolset to create dynamic and engaging websites.

One of my strengths lies in my strong design aesthetic, which allows me to start with a "blank page" and transform it into a visually appealing and user-friendly website. I have a deep understanding of design principles and can incorporate client color palettes to ensure a cohesive and professional look throughout the website development process.

I am an effective problem solver and possess excellent debugging skills, enabling me to identify and resolve technical issues efficiently. Furthermore, my meticulous attention to detail ensures pixel-perfect implementation of design elements and adherence to project requirements. I believe that clear and effective communication is vital in a collaborative environment, and my strong interpersonal skills allow me to work effectively with cross-functional teams, understand client needs, and provide technical guidance throughout the development process.

Time management and organization are key strengths of mine, allowing me to prioritize tasks, meet deadlines, and successfully manage multiple projects simultaneously. I thrive in a fast-paced environment and am dedicated to delivering high-quality work on time.

As a lifelong learner, I am passionate about staying up-to-date with the latest web development trends, techniques, and technologies. I am committed to continuous learning and am always seeking opportunities to expand my knowledge and skills in order to deliver innovative solutions to my clients.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills and experience to dotOrgStrategy. Thank you for considering my application. I have attached my resume and portfolio for your review. I would welcome the chance to discuss further how my qualifications align with your needs.

Sincerely,
